

Daventry Norse

A partnership between Daventry District Council and Norse
Commercial Services

Introduction

- Nick Drake

Joint Venture Partnership Daventry Norse

Why a Norse Joint Venture?

- Owned by Norfolk County Council
- Gives a high degree of local control
- Provides support for strategic management, human resources and procurement
- Desire to grow commercial business
- Strives for quality
- Is a partnership

Aims and Objectives

- Understanding what Norse is providing
- Understanding what Norse can provide
- Fully equipped to respond to customers

From June 2018

Collection Service

Food

Recycling

Waste

Garden

1

Every week

2

Every 2 weeks

3

Every 3 weeks

+

Every 2 weeks
Opt in for £35 per year

Services

Output Driven

- Household and trade waste collection
- Markets preparation
- Cleaning of public toilets
- Preparation of burial plots
- Play equipment

Resource Driven

- Cleansing
- Landscape (including Country Parks)
- Education and Engagement [NWP]

What Can Norse Offer Landlords?

- Commercial waste collection services
- USP is that we are already in the area
- Advice on waste disposal options
- Cleansing services – FM
- Cleansing services – Car parks, roads
- Graffiti removal
- Landscaping services
- Void clearances
- Links into charitable re-use schemes

Finally...

Thank you...

Any Questions?