Re: Settlements & Countryside Local Plan (Part2) for Daventry District
Independent Hearing 11th June 2019

Following a meeting of Boughton Parish Council on Monday 10th June 2019 the Council resolved to endorse the statement below that will be made as part of the representations put forward by Mrs Charlotte Mackaness.

“The volume and complexity of information surrounding the Local Plan Part 2 process contrasts with the absence of clear explanation and signposting of the most pertinent parts of the plan and their significance to villages. The paucity of responses throughout from Parish Councils (six out of 52) and residents provide evidence of this. As such, Boughton Parish Council believes that DDC has not engaged constructively on strategic, relevant matters and, therefore, it also supports the responses made by several residents that Boughton has been classified incorrectly as a secondary service village.”

Mrs Mackaness is a Boughton Parish Councillor but is attending the Hearing as a private individual.

Yours sincerely,

Jayne Bunting
Clerk to the Council & RFO
